

Academic

- Masters Degree Candidate in History at American Military University
- Bachelor of Arts in History from the University of Maryland (2007)
- Associate Degree in History from Frederick Community College (2003)
- Associate Degree in Park Management from Frederick Community College (2000)
- Masters Degree in Safety from the University of Southern California (1983)
- Masters Degree in Business Administration from the University of Maryland (1979)
- Bachelor of Science Degree in Fire Protection Engineering from the Illinois Institute of Technology (1974)

Miscellaneous

- Volunteer Historic Interpreter at Historic Saint Mary's City (Current)
- Volunteer Historic Interpreter at Fort Frederick State Park (Current)
- Volunteer Historic Interpreter at Monocacy National Battlefield (Current)
- Conducted a Series of Lectures on the War for Empire at Weiser's Homestead, Pennsylvania (2006)
- Member of the Cast for "Pursuit of Honor: The Rise of George Washington" (2005)
- Presented a Lecture on the French and Indian War for the Council on America's Military Past (2005)
- Presented a Lecture on African Americans in the American Military at the University of Maryland (2005)
- Presented a Lecture on the Inchon Landings in Korea at the University of Maryland (2005)
- Member of the Cast of the Paladin Production of the New Visitor's Center Movie at Fort Necessity (2004)
- Presented a Lecture on Slavery on Small Plantations at the Conference on African Americans in the American Civil War (2003)
- Member of the Cast of "Combat in the Civil War: Gettysburg," a History Channel Production (2003)
- Presented a Lecture on African Americans in the Colonial Militia at the Catoctin Conference on Regional History (2002)
- Member of the Cast of "God's and Generals" (2002)
- Member of the Cast of "Glory" (1988)